(22-MAY-18) – AURORA, COLO. – The Arabian Horse Association (AHA) is proud to announce a partnership with Equine Athlete Veterinary Services (Equine Athlete) as AHA’s newest Corporate Partner.

“We are excited to partner with Equine Athlete and have them join our AHA family as a Corporate Partner. They are a highly skilled team of veterinarians and we look forward to a long lasting relationship,” states Mikayla Boge, AHA’s Director of Marketing.

Equine Athlete’s Practice Manager, Kristen Wallis explains, “We believe this partnership with the Arabian Horse Association is a great fit in continuing our commitment to the equine athlete and support of the Arabian Horse community.”

Owned by Brad Hill, DVM and Ty Wallis, DVM, MS, Diplomate ACVS, Equine Athlete is an exclusively-equine practice and designed to cater to the needs of the equine athlete, at all stages of life.

Equine Athlete’s mission is to provide customers outstanding value in veterinary care in three areas:

1. Producing predictable and reliable results;
2. Offering quality diagnostics and therapeutics at an affordable price;
3. Utilizing clear and concise communication at every step along the way.

“Our veterinarians travel nationwide throughout the year, offering our services for pre-purchase exams, consultations on complex lameness and medical issues of the equine athlete, preparing performance horses for competition, and managing their health care at horse shows. Making ourselves available in this capacity gives our clients the competitive advantage of continuity of care for each individual horse.”

Equine Athlete Veterinary Services insists on remaining at the cutting edge of equine sports medicine through continued education opportunities and utilizing the latest in digital diagnostic technology. They have extensive experience with regenerative therapies – including stem cells, platelet rich plasma (PRP), and IRAP II – as well as the ability to combine these techniques with elective surgical services provided by their own board-certified surgeon, Dr. Ty Wallis.
