

Mounted Native Costume

Mounted Native Costume horses are shown at a walk, canter, and hand gallop both ways of the arena. The bridle may consist of bit, hackamore, or any suitable headstall. The rider's attire is of native, Bedouin type. Flowing capes, coats, pantaloons, head dresses, scarfs, sashes and any other decoration in keeping with colorful desert regalia are allowed.