All AHA program and event deadlines must be met as specified, whether submitted by hand delivery, postal service, fax, e-mail, internet, or other electronic means.

OFFC 101. GENERAL INFORMATION

1. AHA Judges and Stewards/TD's are required to hold an AHA individual Adult Membership (refer to MEM 105.1). Specialty Judges and Guest Judges must hold either: (BOD 10/18)
 - a. A USEF/EC Senior/Adult Membership, or
 - b. An individual AHA Membership.
2. All AHA Arabian/Half-Arabian/Anglo-Arabian Recognized Shows must use judges and stewards from the AHA Recognized Judges and Stewards Lists.
 - a. These lists are available from the AHA Judges and Stewards Commissioner's Office and can be found on the AHA website. (Res. 5-90, 7-90, 40-91)
 - b. Any Multi-breed shows with AHA Recognition shall not be required to select stewards from the AHA Approved Stewards List. (Res. 40-91)
 - c. Exception: OFFC 104 Specialty Classes
 - d. Updates and corrections to the AHA Recognized Judges List are updated on the AHA Website.
3. Recognized Judges may not adjudicate in back-to-back AHA Recognized shows unless they are not adjudicating the same type of classes. Class type is defined by:
 - a. Sections – Western, English/Country English, Hunter, Reining, Trail, etc.
 - b. Sex for Breeding/In-Hand – Stallion, Mare, Gelding.
For example: A judge may adjudicate Western Pleasure and Stallion Breeding at the first show and then would be changed to adjudicate English/Country English Pleasure and Mare Breeding at the second show. Splitting of judging assignments in a back-to-back situation by AO/JO/AAO/AT/JT/AAT within a section is not allowed. (BOD 8/16)
Exception: For Specialty Judges refer to OFFC 104. (BOD 8/18)
4. All AHA Judges, Specialty Judges, Guest Judges and Stewards/TD's are held to the Rules of Conduct found in ETHICS 104. If for any reason a judge or steward is removed from the AHA Recognized Judges and Stewards List, they will be permitted to fulfill their assignments for those shows for which a contract has been signed. (BOD 11/17)
5. The Judges & Stewards Commissioner is empowered to take action which the Commissioner deems appropriate in any matter in which the Commissioner considers, in their sole opinion, that failure to act in a timely manner will result in immediate and irreparable harm to the public or exhibitor's confidence in the conduct of the Judges or Stewards of any AHA approved competition. (Res. 5-90) (Res. 35-08)
6. The Judges and Stewards Commissioner is empowered to warn, to require more education of, to suspend, or remove a judge or steward from the AHA Approved Judges & Stewards List, as appropriate. Said action subject to a de novo review by the Education and Evaluation Commission (EEC), if so, requested by the judge or steward, and such review shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire EEC to overturn the actions of the Commissioner. (Res. 35-08)
7. Cutting: Any AHA Recognized show which offers any cutting class(es) with over $100 in added prize money must utilize an NCHA Judge. Cutting classes with $100 or less in added prize money may utilize a non-NCHA Judge if approved by the AHA Judges & Stewards Commissioner. Reasons for all non-NCHA Judge approvals (or non-approvals) by the Judges & Stewards Commissioner will be conveyed to the Show Management. (Res. 12-13)
8. A judge shall conduct himself/herself in a manner fitting and proper to one afforded the honor of officiating at any AHA approved or sponsored contest.
 - a. Any misconduct on the part of the judge at any AHA contest, the use of abusive language, showing favoritism to or discriminating against either an individual or a horse performing in the contest, or any other action unbecoming to one in his/her position, either on the grounds or elsewhere during the entire show will make the judge subject to review by the AHA Judges & Stewards Commissioner.

- b. The complaint must be submitted in writing by the show management or AHA Steward or may be sent directly to the AHA Judges & Stewards Commissioner. (BOD 11/13)
9. Conflict of Interest:
- a. A judge may not judge their parents, children, spouse, spouse's parents, relatives of either the judge or their spouse.
 - b. A judge may not judge their employer or employees.
 - c. A judge may not judge a horse that they have owned, exhibited, trained, managed, or sold for direct or indirect remuneration within the thirty (30) day period immediately preceding any AHA approved or sponsored event at which said judge is officiating either in full or in part.
 - d. A judge may not judge any individual rider, or horse owned by said rider, who has had training from or given training to said judge within the thirty (30) day period immediately preceding the AHA approved or sponsored event at which said judge is officiating in full or in part.
 - e. If such a horse, owner or rider is entered in a contest, the entry fee shall be refunded, and the entry not shown. (BOD 11/13)
10. Each judge must sign their scorecard (Official Judges Card) and the Show Management shall post the same (when required) in a conspicuous place immediately following each go-round and finals. There must not be any consultation between judges until scorecards are turned in. (BOD 11/13) After judge's cards are turned in, there will be no changes, except to rectify a transcription error.
11. Cutting: When two or more individuals are judging a cutting horse contest and one or two judges can not complete judging of the go-round, the score or scores of the remaining judge or judges who complete the go-round will be the sole basis of computing the go-round. Each judge must score each horse individually, and if any one of their scores is counted in a go-round, all of their scores must be counted except as provided herein; where five or more individuals are judging a cutting horse contest, the highest and the lowest scores for each horse may be discarded and the accumulated scores of the remaining judges used to compute the go-round. This rule shall also apply to finals. (BOD 11/13)
12. Cutting: When two or more individuals are judging a cutting horse contest of more than one go-round or with finals, and one or more judges becomes unable to continue between the go-rounds or finals, said judge or judges shall be replaced first by the alternate judge named for the contest and second by a judge acceptable to the majority of the contestants and to the show management. If the alternate judge is unavailable, the second option shall be used. (BOD 11/13)

OFFC 102. REGIONAL JUDGES, GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Regional Championship Shows, Pacific Slope Championships, East Coast Championships, Eastern and Western Canadian Breeders must be judged by a Registered ("R") or Senior judge in the Arabian Division of USEF or EC, who is on the AHA Recognized Judges List published by the Arabian Horse Association. Judges contracted must be from the list of AHA Accredited National/Regional Judges (Res. 10-00) or request and receive an exception to use an AHA Accredited Judge (Res. 10-00) from the Judges and Stewards Commissioner's office. (Res. 5-90) (Exception: OFFC 104 Specialty Classes)
2. A judge must not judge more than two Regional Championship Shows including the East Coast, Pacific Slope, Eastern and Western Canadian Breeders Shows in any one calendar year.
