2018 Canadian Nationals Activities for Exhibitors

(19-JULY-18) – AURORA, COLO. – The Arabian horses are headed back to Brandon, Manitoba this year for The Canadian National Arabian and Half-Arabian Championship Horse Show! Join the Arabian Horse Association (AHA) in celebrating the beauty and versatility of the breed in Canadian style and flair with these activities:

Friday, August 10

The show will kick off with the Exhibitor Appreciation Dinner starting at 5 p.m., brought to you by the Keystone Centre.

Friday, August 17

Celebrate Armed Forces Day with us on Friday, August 17 by wearing red in support of the Canadian Armed Forces and U.S. Military. A special flag presentation will begin prior to the evening session.

Join us for the Second Annual Brandon Ribfest happening from August 17-20 in the south parking lot of the Keystone Centre.

Learn more about the Arabian horse in a personal and backstage setting with our Total Arabian Interactive Learning (T.A.I.L.) Tours. These tours give an insider perspective of the Arabian breed and the horse show. They are FREE and open to the public.

Tours will be given on the following dates:

- Thursday, August 12 at 2 p.m.
- Friday, August 17 at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.
- Saturday, August 18 at 10 a.m.

To schedule a tour contact AHA at youth@arabianhorses.org or call 303-597-8251.

Learn more about the Arabian breed by traveling back in time to the mini-museum exhibit located in the commercial exhibit space. The museum exhibit is also FREE to the public.
