

Working Cow Horse

Working Cow Horse classes are designated to demonstrate the horse's ability to hold, contain and work a cow. Each horse is scored from zero to infinity with 70 being the average mark. Points are added or subtracted from the base score of 70 for faults or penalties. Penalties will be counted for losing a working advantage with the cow, passing the cow, losing control of the cow, biting or striking the cow and knocking the cow down.