AHA Handbook, Chapter 5, CBP 109.4.:

1. Convention Delegates requested that their Member Organizations have more input into the Board elected positions. As a result, the following procedure has been adopted:
 - a. Step 1: April 1. All Member Organization presidents will be notified prior to April 1 of each year that they may put forth the name of a qualified individual for consideration by the Executive Committee. A job description will be enclosed with the notification which will detail the time involved, the experience necessary, and other facts relative to election to the committee involved. The presidents will also be notified that a thorough resume must accompany each nomination.
 - b. Step 2: June 1. All nominations must be sent to the AHA office and postmarked/electronic transaction dated no later than June 1. A nomination will not be accepted if it is not accompanied by a thorough resume for the persons nominated.
 - c. Step 3: June 10 (or first workday following June 10). AHA staff will have assembled and have ready for distribution the names of the nominees and their resumes.
 - d. Step 4: June 10-July 1. The Executive Committee members will review the nominees and their resumes for the committees during the first two weeks of July. (BOD 8/05)
 - e. Step 5: The Executive Committee will determine a suitable selection procedure. No more than three candidates shall be selected. The selected candidates will be added to the ballot to be voted on by the Board of Directors. Their resumes will be distributed to the Board of Directors with the resumes of those nominated by BOD members. (BOD 5/93)
