

Corky Sutton

- Licensed Arabian Judge 1982 – current
- Judged numerous Youth Nationals, US Nationals
- Judged regional championships in 13 different regions

Clarice "Corky" has devoted her life to the pursuit of excellence in the horse show arena. As a versatile trainer she has countless Regional and National awards in diverse disciplines. Her devotion to the breed includes breeding, training, showing and judging. Some of the highlights of her judging career include judging the Salon Du Cheval in Paris in 1999. She has judged in Australia 3 times. She judged the first

Central Park show, and has judged in Brazil many times. Of the numerous times she has judged US Nationals, 3 of those times were with Edwin on different teams. She also has judged Youth/Midsummer Nationals many times and countless Regional and Scottsdale shows.

Corky was honored in 2011 when named Judge of the Year by the Arabian Horse Times Readers Choice Awards. Corky and her husband live in a century old homestead outside of Buffalo in Akron, New York

AUSTRALIAN ARABIAN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Photo By Diana Ross