

LaRae Fletcher Powell

- Licensed Arabian Judge from 1993 until her death in 2022
- Judged all levels of competition; valued member of the Education and Evaluation Commission

LaRae always put the horses first. She had every right to have an ego but never did. She was the ultimate trainer/showman, having earned multiple titles across multiple disciplines and breeds.

She grew up with one goal in sign – to train horses, and that she did. She became a legend.

As far as judging, she was such a great horseman that judging was a natural for her. She was elected to the Education and Evaluation Commission where her gift of teaching made her presentations at the Exhibitors/Judges School and Judges Seminar well received by her peers.
